

Hi everyone!

Welcome to Notelove's monthly newsletter! Everyone here is all connected through our organization - whether you're a parent, student, instructor, or general supporter!

Fall 2020 with notelove

CHAPTERS:

After receiving several chapter applications from teens across the country, we decided to open two new chapters in Boston and Southern California! Meet the directors from each chapter and visit their websites to view their progress!

Boston Updates:

The Notelove Boston chapter was founded in August to spread Notelove's mission to the east coast. Notelove Boston is currently offering violin, cello, piano, trumpet, alto saxophone, oboe, clarinet, and guitar lessons. All of our directors and talented instructors are happy to bring music lessons to children living in the Greater Boston Area!

SoCal Updates:

As of September 30th, the SoCal chapter has 15 instructors, and 10 students. We just launched our website, and a merchandise store along with it! Our chapter received the Google Ad Grant for Non-profits, and we are currently planning our first virtual fundraiser. For the past few weeks, we have been working with Anderson PR to reach media outlets, and so far, Notelove SoCal has booked 2 interviews and been featured in 3 online articles!

ACTIVITIES & EVENTS:

High School Prep Workshop:

To help prepare incoming freshmen for high school, we hosted two high school preparation workshops on August 9 and 12. Our directors informed parents in the Bay Area about what to expect for their children in high school, speaking on their own personal experiences in extracurriculars and classes.

Sunnyvale Cares Grant

After applying to several grants, we finally received one from the Sunnyvale Cares grant, acquiring $1000 in funds.

notelove BY THE NUMBERS

The year has yet to end, but we have a couple chapter-wide updates to share.

Winter 2020 with notelove

Winter Concert:

On December 5th, we hosted our first winter concert! We had 29 video submissions from 17 students and 16 instructors, and 145 people attended!

Students played pieces either along or with their instructors, and some instructors played independently or with other instructors. The entire concert was conducted over YouTube Live, and you can find it on our YouTube channel.

T-shirts:

You can still order T-shirts! They're $18.35 and we still have 4 small, 1 medium, and 3 large shirts available!

2020 Timeline:

April 26 - June 14: Instrument Zoo

Notelove's instructors made videos to teach about their instrument! Watch those videos on our YouTube channel.

July 29: $1000 Grant from the City of Sunnyvale

August: 30+ Students

August 9 & 12: High School Prep Workshop

August 11: Boston Chapter joined Notelove

September 12: Over $1000 in total donations

October: 50+ Instructors

October 16: 16 Partnerships

November: 70+ Students

December: 1000 hours volunteered

Donations:

Did you know that donations to Notelove are tax-deductible? We also offer company match through our website! You can check here if your employer can match your donation, doubling your donation amount.

Donations help us cover the cost of our website, fund PVSA awards for our volunteers, allow us to host events, and advertise.

Thank you to everyone that donated during the winter!

Our Boston chapter has over 30 registered students and 28 instructor applicants. They have recently applied for a local grant, and have received positive feedback from tutees' parents.

Our Growth:

Since our Fall Newsletter, we have recruited:

Thanks to all of our supporters, we have been able to grow and flourish as a student-run organization. Thank you to all of you for allowing us to do great things this year, and having patience as we navigated through the pandemic. Have a great winter break, and we will see you all in the next year!
